

YOU ARE the Lifeblood of This Organization

By Lynnsey Basala, The Longleaf Alliance

The Longleaf Alliance is stronger than ever, thanks to your unwavering support. Despite the collective challenges in recent years, your new or renewed memberships and conservation partnerships allow us to press on and get the job done in a safe and impactful manner. Just look at the robust list of supporters in 2021!* You are not stepping back. You are stepping forward in ways we did not anticipate. Whether you contributed $10 or $10,000, we accepted your donation with excitement and gratitude. You are the lifeblood of this organization.

This year, with the help of thousands of dedicated individuals from Virginia to Texas and beyond, TLA allocated 86% of its income to programs and services. We are eager to carry this momentum into the New Year. We aspire to expand on our many achievements from 2021, some of which (but not all!) are highlighted in this issue. We look forward to meeting more folks face to face and continuing to do the good work of which we are all proud.

The list of 2021 Conservation Partners contains those that contributed monetary or in-kind goods between October 1, 2020, and September 30, 2021. The Longleaf Alliance is a 501(c)(3) charitable organization. Contributions are tax-deductible as allowed by law.*

Thanks to our supporters for being a part of the longleaf team.

AMBBIS Team members know the power of working together to reach a common goal. Last summer, they celebrated a successful prescribed burn in reticulated flatwood salamander restoration sites after months of preparation. TLA's restoration crews cut and piled encroaching trees and shrubs around the wetlands, a very labor-intensive process, before reintroducing prescribed fire.
