

LONGLEAF ACADEMY

Longleaf 101

Longleaf 101 will guide landowners and natural resource professionals through the ecology and management of longleaf pine systems. A combination of classroom lectures, discussions, and field tours will expand attendees' knowledge on "all things longleaf".

Topics covered:

- Longleaf establishment
- Managing with fire
- Release treatments
- Managing for wildlife habitat
- Pests and diseases
- Forest products and economics
- Converting to longleaf
- And local topics

When:

March 12-14, 2024

Where:

Perdido River Farms
5535 Poarch Rd
Atmore, AL 36502

Cost:

Free to landowners
$100 Professionals
SAF credits pending

Register at longleafalliance.org

Presented with support from

The Nature Conservancy | National Fish & Wildlife Foundation
And a special thanks to the Poarch Band of Creek Indians