

CALLING ALL LOCAL LANDOWNERS

COVINGTON and ESCAMBIA COUNTY FORESTRY COMMITTEES

EASTERN INDIGO SNAKE FESTIVAL

2024 LOCAL LANDOWNER FIELD DAY AND WORKSHOP

Event is free to attend

Lunch & T-Shirt included

WHAT?

Private landowners in Covington and Escambia Counties (AL) are invited to learn about the reintroduction of the Eastern Indigo Snake on the Conecuh National Forest and programs that assist with managing local wildlife habitat.

Representatives from the USDA Forest Service, US Fish and Wildlife Service, Alabama Department of Conservation and Natural Resources, Alabama Forestry Commission, Alabama Forestry Foundation, Natural Resource Conservation Service, Farm Service Agency, Quail Forever, and The Longleaf Alliance will be available to discuss opportunities for you and your property.

WHERE?

Conecuh National Forest
Open Pond Recreation Area

WHEN?

Friday, May 3, 2024
9:00 AM

Mabelle Abbott '24

PLEASE RSVP BY FRIDAY, APRIL 19

Covington County Extension Office (334-222-1125)

